BF&M supports Huckleberry Restaurant's participation in the Christ Church Community Feeding Programme

Hamilton, Bermuda, 12 August 2020— In response to an appeal made by Huckleberry Restaurant and Christ Church, BF&M Limited ("BF&M") furthered its community support efforts in response to the Covid-19 crisis through a recent donation made in the amount of $5,000 to support their Community Feeding Programme.

Huckleberry's is preparing 1,000 meals a week which are being distributed by Christ Church in Warwick in conjunction with the Eliza Dolittle charity to families and individuals in need.

Scott Kitson, owner of Rosedon Hotel, said: "We extend heartfelt thanks to the management and staff of BF&M Insurance Group for their generous support of Huckleberry Restaurant's participation in the Christ Church Community Feeding Programme. The program's objective is to prepare and deliver nutritionally balanced meals to those in Bermuda's population facing challenges with food security. Donations and support by Bermudians and local businesses are helping to make the program sustainable in the longer term, meaning those facing financial hardship and most in need of support can at least meet the basic necessity of having something decent to eat. We are sincerely thankful for all support and are proud to be working together in helping to provide this basic necessity to Bermuda's community."

John Wight, Group Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of BF&M Limited, stated: "It's our pleasure to support local initiatives that help to ease the burden faced by so many families during these unforeseen times."
