What Are the Risks

The value of shares in the Fund and income received from it can go down as well as up and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Performance may also be affected by currency fluctuations. Currency fluctuations may affect the value of overseas investments. The Fund invests mainly in equity securities of companies located in or doing significant business in the U.S. Such securities have historically been subject to significant price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or company-specific factors. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate significantly over relatively short time periods. Other significant risks include: securities lending risk. For full details of all of the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Considerations" section of the Fund in the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

Important Information

This fund has been classified as Article 8 under the Regulation on sustainability related disclosures in the financial services sector (EU) 2019/2088. These are Funds which have an ESG integration approach and, in addition, have binding environmental and/or social characteristics in their investment process.

Further information in relation to the sustainability-related aspects of the Fund can be found at www.franklinresources.com/countries. Please review all of the fund's objectives and characteristics before investing.

Ratings: Franklin Templeton SICAV fund fact sheets only reflect Morningstar ratings for funds that received an overall rating of 3, 4 or 5 stars. Keep in mind a fund must be at least three years old to be eligible to receive a star rating. © Morningstar, Inc. All rights reserved. The information contained herein: (1) is proprietary to Morningstar and/or its content providers; (2) may not be copied or distributed; and (3) is not warranted to be accurate, complete or timely. Neither Morningstar nor its content providers are responsible for any damages or losses arising from any use of this information. Morningstar Rating as of 2022. For each fund with at least a three-year history, Morningstar calculates a risk-adjusted return measure that accounts for variation in a fund's monthly performance (including the effects of sales charges), placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The top 10% of funds in each category receive a Morningstar Rating of 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. (Each share class is counted as a fraction of one fund and rated separately, which may cause slight variations in the distribution percentages.) Morningstar ratings are for Class A shares only; other classes may have different performance characteristics. Past performance is not an indicator or a guarantee of future performance.

Negative Cash Weightings: The negative cash position reflects a temporary position that is a result of a delay in securities settlement transactions.

Benchmark performance: Benchmarks are used for comparison purposes. The Russell 3000 Growth index is considered to be the main benchmark of the sub-fund as it is made up of growth stocks, which corresponds to the emphasis placed by the manager in the management of the sub-fund. The S&P 500 Index can also be provided as it is considered to be an indicator of the US equity market. Although the manager is not subject to any constraints in the active management of the sub-fund and may invest in companies not included in the benchmarks, the performance of the sub-fund may, from time to time, show close similarities with these benchmarks.

Top Ten Holdings: Top Holdings represent the largest holdings of the fund as of the date indicated. These securities do not represent all of the securities purchased, sold or recommended for advisory clients, and the reader should not assume that investment in the securities listed was or will be profitable.

Management Fee: Investment Management Fee is a monthly fee equivalent to a percentage of the Fund's adjusted daily net assets received by the Investment Manager for each Class of Shares, except for the I shares classes. For a full description of all fees and charges that an investor may incur, including the initial sales charges and maintenance and company charges attributable to a class of shares of the Fund, please consult the current Prospectus.
